Over 90 Chinook Rotarians, partners, and friends got together at the Carriage House Windsor Ballroom last Tuesday evening to celebrate the Christmas season.

Organizer and Chairperson Tammy Truman welcomed everyone and asked the band "Legend" to lead us in O' Canada. Joe Hooper said grace.

The group enjoyed either a steak or salmon dinner. A white and red bottle of wine was on each table compliments of the Carriage House..

After dinner, Tammy thanked the Carriage House staff and called on President David Wartman to bring greetings and present awards for recognition of service to Chinook Rotary. Pat and Bruce Williams were recognized for their support of the Grillin' and Servin' program, Ruth Wylie for her contribution as pianist, Connie Hussey for running the desk at meetings, and Stephen and Anne Pick for producing the Arch.

Tammy then introduced Matt, Owen, Bill, and Glenn who make up the band "Legend". Legend played a selection of rock and roll hits from the 60's and 70's. Attendees danced and enjoyed the music for the rest of the evening.

A great evening! Thank you to Tammy for organizing another successful event!
