Calgary Pickleball Mark Stinson, Communications Director

Bart introduced our speaker, Mark Stinson. He has a long list of business credentials, which are not related to his subject, Pickleball.

Mark gave insight into the growing sport, whose Calgary membership has grown from 150 to 850 in 6, or 7 years. Games are played on under-used tennis and badminton courts, with smaller dimensions and a lower net. The game is similar to table tennis, without the table.

Mark suggested that those interested in learning about the sport, attend introductory sessions at the junior volleyball facility on 52nd street NE, adjacent to SMED's. Further information can be obtained from their website:

www.calgarypickleball.ca

Tony Tighe, retired Global TV newscaster, added an enthusiastic endorsement of the game, with its low cost, and social and family benefits.

President George thanked Mark, and presented him with a Polio Plus certificate.

Club of Calgary Chinook

Greeters today were Al Holt and Paul Hussey.

Al introduced visiting Rotarian, Bill Skinner, and guests Faye Green and Tony Tighe.

Peter B. followed up the intro of Bill Skinner, of the Heritage Park Club, recognizing his accomplishments with the Guatemalan project, established 10 years ago to help with clean water, sanitation and stoves. For several years, Chinook has provided financial support. Bill announced that, as the project has become self sufficient, it is being wound down.

Bill also mentioned two fundraisers his club is promoting: "Give a Fork" raffle, and "Second Chance Art Sale". See the ads elsewhere in this issue.

Our Scribe this week: Bob Montgomery.

MINUTE MEMBERS

- Rhea reminded us that our mentorship program with Fairview school resumes on January 18th at Roots 2

STEM. Volunteers still requested.

- Past Prez Alex is organizing efforts of club members to assist in meal preparations at the Calgary Drop In Center on Thursday, February 7th, from 2:00 to 3:30 pm. Volunteers are requested for duties including chopping vegetables, making sandwiches, plating food, and washing dishes.

MEMBER RECOGNITION

President George recognized Paul Hussey for club service since his induction in 1986.

Incredibly, he has maintained perfect attendance since then. Paul is a Paul Harris Fellow. He has been a Director and served on various committees, including chair of House committee for 20 years, ably assisted by wife, Connie. Paul is an avid Rotary curler, and bridge enthusiast. He is one of Chinook's unsung heroes.

Meeting Minutes cont'd from page 2

50/50, now called Chase the Ace, was won by Dawn Rennie. She collected $50, but didn't draw the ace, so next week's big prize will be $386. Dawn generously donated her entire winnings to the club.

SAA Neil Beatty, regaled us with a story of a politician and St. Peter. Funds raised came from last week's big pool winner, Secretary Paul.

Pres George promoted the Chinese New Year Dinner fundraiser organized by the Rotary Club of Calgary South. Contact George for more information.

In Memoriam

April 7, 1924 - January 14, 2019

Dan joined the Rotary Club of Calgary Chinook in 2002, sponsored by Don McKenzie. He was a Paul Harris Fellow, and supporter of the various club fundraising activities.

Dan was born in Oyen, Alberta. The Great Depression forced the return to Wales when he was 13, but he never lost his love for the prairies. When Dan turned 14, he signed on with the Boys Service of the British Army. During the next 12 years he received his education as a mechanic, and served overseas during the Second World War.

Dan and Barbara were married in 1952, and in 1953, returned to Canada where they both found work in Calgary. Dan ran a Gulf service station for 14 years, then in 1975, he opened a Bumper to Bumper store (later changed to Auto Value). Dan insisted on honesty, fairness, and exceptional customer service from all who worked there.

Dan and Barbara travelled extensively. Dan was friendly and outgoing, and had a sharp and curious mind. He talked with genuine interest to all who crossed his path. He was an avid curler and skier, and enjoyed card playing. He loved Barbara dearly, and they were inseparable even after 66 years of marriage.

A Celebration of Life was held on Sunday, January 20th.
