Chinook's annual picnic meeting at Rotary Nature Park was attended by 37 members and 4 guests. We all enjoyed a box lunch, catered by McKenzie Meadows Golf Club, as arranged by Jim.

Jim provided us with a brief summary of happenings in the last year, with little new to report. Of significance, the contract with the government re operation of the park, expires in 2022. Jim is going to take that opportunity to be replaced, as he is 'moving on'.

Nature Park Picnic Meeting

Rhea commented that she had provided the details of the nature park model to a Rotarian in the USA. As a result, there is a similar one, "Harmony Park" in Vermont.

Prez Rob then got in the act, to welcome all. He handed out the new Rotary pins, which reminded your scribe of a 3 tiered wedding cake.

Anthony recognized Rotarians with Paul Harris Fellow pins: Sydney Richmond and Ted Wada +1.

In closing, Rob reminded us that the next meeting is September 1st via ZOOM, when our guest speaker will be Suze Casey. She is a motivational speaker, whom Rob thinks highly of. Further meetings will be scheduled after The carriage House advises us of meeting room availabilities.

Rob thanked Jim for making the arrangements for our outdoor meeting. He also acknowledged and thanked Dale for registrations and Alex for ???. (Your scribe missed his role.)
