Today's Meeting:

Gail Williams announced the guests followed by our welcome song.

Jim Hutchens had our guest speaker pull the 50/50 ticket. Len Hamm came to collect, but it turns out he read his ticket incorrectly and Stacey Johnson had the correct winning ticket for $150.

Sherry Austin talk to us about the history of legacy projects in this club.

Our legacy projects are a maximum of 5 years and 1 million dollars. It is the only project that is allowed to be funded for over 1 year in our club. It is also the only project in our club that following board approval required membership ratification. Sherry then tells us about past legacy projects. Please watch the video linked on page 1 to hear more.

Murray Flegel walks us through the criteria for Legacy Projects. Click HERE to see the PowerPoint.

President Jim Bladon tells us what project has been chosen for the next 5 years!

Joe Connelly introduced our guest speaker and our newest partner Candice Goudre the Executive Director of Calgary Flames Foundation and Community investment.

Candice tell us a bit about her self before starting her incredible presentation about our legacy project for the net 5 years!!! Please check out the full presentation by watching the video linked on page 1. I have also linked the PowerPoint HERE. Her presentation was followed by a thanks from Murray and Joe. Larry Kennedy then opened the presentation up for questions from members.

Our New Legacy Project has been identified Flames Foundation Arenas Project

Ratification Vote for the 2025- 2030 Legacy Project

On September 5 , 2024, the Board of Directors of the Rotary Club of Calgary at Stampede Park Society approved the Flames Foundation Arenas Project as the Legacy Project for 2025 – 2030. On this day, September 12, 2024, the membership of the Rotary Club of Calgary at Stampede Park hereby ratifies this decision.
