Jim Hutchens introduced 3 members of City of Calgary Youth Probation Team. Susan Hull is the Youth Justice Coordinator and Ismat Bandali and Jamie Porter are members of her team.

Susan introduced the Club to the work they do – primarily today talking about the court aspect of children who are mandated to work with this team of social workers. They do a lot more, but for the time today she will focus on the court work. This team works with many high risk youth and they use their current situations to focus on prevention for issues happening again in the future. The team works collaboratively with many government and non-profit groups so that the whole community is engaged and part of the solution. Susan noticed the collaborative manner and comradery of our Club and she said this plays out in her job as well.

The Youth Criminal Justice Act applies to those aged 12 – 17. They look at what has caused this behavior and this helps start rehabilitation. The sentence the youth receives must match the seriousness of the offence and the circumstances like family and supports. They then know where the focus of their work needs to be. It is important to note that this serve is unique in all of Canada as the team are employees of City of Calgary so that they can do a 'made in Calgary' response that will meet the youth's needs. There are 3 offices to support the youth in this manner (Forest Lawn, Bowmont, and MacLeod Trail).

YOUTH JUSTICE PRESENTATION

Interesting Information and Statistics from the Presentation

Ismat and Jamie discussed how closely they work with other criminal justice bodies, other organizations and especially families to build up the relationships and to identify which supports are in place and which need to be constructed.

The team does a tremendous amount of pre-sentence reports that include the history, circumstances and functionality of the youth and their family. They guide the youth through the justice system and ensure legal council is available.

There is a constant line of communication between the Probation Officers and the court. The Probation orders may include where the youth is to live, they must go to school and treatment, follow a curfew and of course abstain from drugs and alcohol.

Susan reports that the 'system' is working! In 1992 there was 1,200 youth on their case-loads. Today they have 433 youth in their program now (it represents about 700 collective court orders). The law has changed the practice to prevention and this has been very positive. The court system also has reduced their costs when the community can respond. 80% are male, 20% are female, 49% are Caucasian youth. Please contact Susan if you would like more information at Susan.Hull@calgary.ca

Jim Fitzowich thanked Susan, Ismat and Jamie for a great presentation. It was interesting to learn of the complex and multi-faceted work that was being done to support our youth. It really opened our eyes as Rotarians and parents. In the 'old days' the police officer would come to your house and talk with you and you ended up as a Rotarian! With 1.3 million Calgarians and only 433 youth in program is very good – they work being done is showing tremendous successes. We will look at having the team back to continue this conversation!

SHORT TERM STUDENT EXCHANGE Summer 2016

Rotary Club of Calgary South is currently accepting applications for a Summer Student Exchange.

About the Program

The purpose of the program is to promote international peace, goodwill and understanding through a 6 to 8 week family to family exchange.

Rotary acts as the facilitator by matching students/families of similar age, sex and interests. One of the students will first visit the family he or she is matched with for a period of 3 to 4 weeks. Then, the two students will fly (usually together) to the other family and the process is reversed.

To be eligible students must be between the ages of 15 and 18

Cost of the program is $200 administration fee, airfare, insurance and spending money.

How To Apply

To apply go to the www.yex5360.org and the section marked "Short Term Exchange". Under the section marked "Downloads and Resources" look for the "Preliminary Application". Complete this document and provide to Kevin Hayes or Ron Prokosch. You will then be contacted for an interview and information meeting.

Deadline for applications is February 15, 2016.
