Celebrating International Women's Day

The theme for this 115th anniversary of International Women's Day is "Give to Gain"

Grants Committee:

Helping Women in Our Community

Give To Gain emphasizes the power of reciprocity and support. When people, organizations, and communities give generously, opportunities and support for women increase.

Rotary Partners: Helping Women in Our Community

Wings of Hope provides vital resources, support, and encouragement to help women rebuild with dignity and confidence. This year, Rotary Partners were honoured to provide $10,000 in funding to support their important work — investing in hope, opportunity, and stronger futures for women in our community.

Rotary Partners: Helping Women in Our Community

HER Society (Healing, Exit, and Restoration), is a charity dedicated to helping women escape abuse or exploitation, heal, and rebuild their lives with dignity and hope. This year, Rotary Partners were honoured to provide $ 3500.00 in funding to support their important work — investing in hope, opportunity, and stronger futures for women in our community.

Whether through donations, knowledge, resources, infrastructure, visibility, advocacy, education, training, mentoring, or time, contributing to women's advancement helps create a more supportive and interconnected world.

Scholarship Opportunities

Scholarships expand the education and career horizons for young mothers from the Louise Dean School.

Youth Opportunities

Youth Exchange students and Interact Youth were introduced to the world of Rotary at the Rotary International Convention, Calgary, June 2025.

Camping & Leadership Opportunities await campers at RYLA and RYPEN

Giving is not a subtraction, it's intentional multiplication.
When women thrive, we all rise.
