Stockmens Memorial Foundation

The Stockmen's Memorial Foundation is dedicated to collecting and preserving the rich history of Western ranching and the livestock industry. After learning about the Rotary Employment Partnership, Scott Grattidge, Executive Director of Stockmens and member of the Cochrane Rotary Club, was inspired to connect with Inclusion Alberta to hire inclusively within the organization.

That connection led to the hiring of Johnathan as a Digital Scanner. In his role, Johnathan carefully scans historic brand titles and archives them into the Foundation's online database. He plays an important part in preserving these valuable records, ensuring each file is accurately entered and properly matched to its corresponding number and name. Scott shared that Johnathan's transition into the role has been going well, noting that collaborating with Johnathan's support has been key to his success. The Foundation's commitment to inclusion is helping preserve history while creating meaningful employment opportunities in the present.

President's Reception

The Rotary Employment Partnership is celebrating its 25th year. When a business is identified by Rotarians, Partnership staff work with them to identify the needs of their business to create a meaningful position, then present multiple candidates for consideration. Focusing on quality, sustainable and paid positions for individuals with intellectual disabilities, the partnership has created over 950 jobs across the province. Come celebrate this milestone with us during our President's Reception on April 17th, 2026 from 7-10 at the Fantasyland Hotel in Edmonton. RSVP by April 3rd to rsvp@inclusionalberta.org.

Recently hired as the Rotary Club of High River's Registrar, Angie plays an important role in making Rotary meetings welcoming and organized. She arrives promptly to set up the room by arranging the tables, chairs and flags, and ensures that things run smoothly for attendees by organizing the name tags and materials. Angie is always willing to lend a hand with any additional tasks requested by staff or volunteers and has been a great help to the club. Congratulations Angie, and the Rotary Club of High River.
