#1009.....		VIRTUAL ZOOM MEETING September 16 th , 2020
September is Basic Education and Literacy Month

ROTARY MINUTE

Hazardous Waste 2020

Lobster Sale

Winning golf team of J Carlucci, C Smith, L Turcotte , T Szmon

GUESTS

- ▶ Rtn Bob Durston - Neepawa
- ▶ Morgan Kruger - Returning Exchange Student from Taiwan
- ▶ Cynthia Seitz - DHS
- ▶ Tommy Johnson - Shaw Spotlight and Sarah McCarthy - CKDR

PROGRAM

- ▶ Will read out a tribute to Louis Maltais, a former Rotarian, which was prepared by Rtn Mel F
- ▶ Mel recounted the many accomplishments of Louis in this town from the time as Fire Chief to his involvement in many local organizations, especially GoGetters and Historical Society
- ▶ Morgan Kruger was here to tell us about her exchange to Hualien City in Taiwan
- ▶ Hualien is located on the east coast of Taiwan on the Pacific Ocean, and has a population of 106,368 inhabitants - but about the size of Dryden
- ▶ Morgan gave us a slide show presentation introducing us to her host parents, her fellow exchange students, and some of the sights around the city and beyond
- ▶ her first host parents spoke good English so made the transition to Chinese easier
- ▶ Taiwan is the last country still using traditional Chinese - it also has the highest concentration of convenience stores
- ▶ She described the many visits to local night markets - where she tried pigs blood and rice on a stick - and stinky tofu (fried and covered with spices/sauce)
- ▶ she also related how the school adapted as soon as COVID hit in February - and temperature was taken - and later school had camera that would also take your temperature when you entered the door
- ▶ she thanked Rotary for the opportunity - and the extra help in getting her back after Covid hit.

First host family
