RibFest 2017 Wrap Up News Release

Issue Date: August 8, 2017

Saskatoon Rotary Ribfest Attendance Exceeds 20,000

20,500 hungry visitors attended the fifth annual Saskatoon Rotary RibFest, held August 4-7 at Diefenbaker Park in Saskatoon. The total was 2,500 more than in 2016 and almost equalled the record of 21,000 set in 2015.

RibFest is organized by the Rotary Club of Saskatoon Nutana. RibFest Chair Boris Kishchuk thanked the ribbers, other vendors, entertainers, volunteers, sponsors and all the people who attended the event for making RibFest a great success again this year.

"We were fortunate to have excellent weather over the long weekend and that contributed to the large crowds," said Kishchuk. He noted that a number of new food vendors, including the Nutana Rotary Club's own corn-on-the-cob booth and Colossal Onion, made for a well-rounded dining experience.

Boss Hog's BBQ of London, Ont. won the Peoples' Choice award while Prairie Smoke and Spice of Regina won the Judges' Choice award. The judges on the panel were Seth Armstrong, Rawlco Radio; Pat Dubois and Kranky, Saskatoon Media Group; Aviva Kohen, Tourism Saskatoon; Rusty Penno, Dakota Dunes Casino; and Walt Pawlovich, president of the Rotary Club of Saskatoon Nutana.

The 50/50 prize totalled $8,682.50. The winning ticket number was RF2-132046.

RibFest offered four days of delicious ribs barbecued by some of Canada's top ribbers, live entertainment, plus a kids' fun area, food and craft vendors, beer garden, 50/50 draw and more. Admission and entertainment were free. Funds raised through Ribfest support the Rotary Club of Saskatoon Nutana's community projects in the areas of youth, First Nations, literacy and education. Visit <http://www.saskatoonribfest.com> for more information.

The sixth annual Saskatoon Ribfest will be held August 3-6, 2018.
