Program -Oskayak School Personnel

Principal Dallas Puto offered an opening greeting followed by a prayer by Elder Lawrence Eyaphaise.

After the traditional lunch of hearty stew, salad and bannock, Waylon Badger gave an explanation of the schools guiding philosophy and sang us the Oskayak song. Waylon is the schools cultural counsellor.

Also present were Nicol Isabelle - Former principal who will be moving to another school in the next term and David O'Soup who is the Guidance Counsellor. Principal Dallas spoke about each persons role in the school and how much he appreciated their help during his first year at Oskayak.

The staff are working together to help the students live a meaningful fulfilling life.

There are about 260 students in total attending Oskayak and there will be approximately 30 Grade 12 grads this year. For the first time Oskayak has a student council this year and Dallas feels it is working out very well. Oskayak is grateful for the support from the Nutana Rotary club over the years, he feels it makes a difference for the students.

President Stan thanked Dallas and staff for hosting us.
