Announcements

- President Peggy circulated the RibFest volunteer schedule. There are new opportunities this year for shucking, cooking and selling corn on the cob. The schedule is attached to this newsletter. Please review and let Peggy know what shifts you can take.

- Let Betty Ann Arscott know as soon as possible if you and your partner are coming to President Peggy's luncheon on June 27 at the Park Town.

- Please make a special effort to sign up RibFest sponsors. If you have had a personal relationship with past RibFest sponsors, please get back to them to confirm them for 2017.

- The board decided that the club will meet every two weeks during the summer. Meetings will be held July 4 and 18, and August, 1, 15 and 29 before returning to the regular weekly schedule in September.

- Dues of $220 should be paid to Treasurer Bob MacGillivray.

- The 100 years of Rotary in Saskatoon celebration dinner, featuring RI President Ian Riseley as keynote speaker, will be held on August 15. Tickets cost $125 and are now available online at https://www.picatic.com/SaskatoonRotaryCentennial2017.

- Contact Lorne Richardson at 373-4685 with any information you have about the health and welfare of club members or their families. Lorne will arrange for an appropriate card or visit.

- Program chairs for the balance of the year are:

  June - Candace Odishaw

Program - Clay Shaw - Saskatoon Youth Art Project

 Walt Pawlovich introduced Clay Shaw, Operations Manager for Saskatoon Community Youth Arts Programming (SCYAP). Clay joined SCYAP in 2016 after 18 years as a Corrections Officer. SCYAP is a charitable and non-profit organization that meets the social, educational and economic needs of youth at risk through arts and cultural programming. SCYAP was established in 2001 by Darrell B. Lechman, to offer street-level, youth-centered solutions to crime, unemployment and youth homelessness by using our youth's artistic interest and inclination as a tool to personal development and redirection towards a healthier, happier and more productive life. One of SCYAP's principal goals is to foster acceptance, integration and equality within the Saskatoon community by carrying out collaborative projects with different sectors, such as business, government, social and health services, and promoting inclusiveness and diverse cultural expression in classes, workshops and presentations. SCYAP offers a 34 week program for 12 at-risk youth, paying them to attend a level 1 art class. Through art and other classes, the program boosts self-esteem, confidence and skills in areas such as communication, budgeting and time management. Of the 12 graduates of the most recent class, 11 are either now employed or back in school and the 12th is receiving professional help for mental health issues. SCYAP participants are responsible for most of the painted electrical boxes around the city and various murals. The organization also runs an art gallery at its building at 253 3rd Ave. S. Free art drop-in classes on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings are open to the whole community. For more information on SCYAP, visit http://www.scyapinc.org/. Jim Blackburn thanked Clay for his presentation.

50/50 Draw - Bob Devrome coordinated the 50/50 draw. Bill Sinnett won the pot of $21.

Sergeant-at-Arms: Sergeant-at-Arms Boris Kishchuk fined Bill Sinnett for making fun of engineers several years ago (engineers have very good memories). Happy/sad dollars included Ed Pek for a visit with his granddaughter; Lorne Richardson for the visit by his nephew Dennis; Massey Mizuno for a visit by train to the West Coast and golden success for him and partner Vi in the masters' games in Regina (they next will go to the nationals in Toronto in August); Joe Dierker for a great trip to Ottawa where he saw Canada 150 exhibitions and the opera on the life of Louis Riel; Bryan Tastad for a family canoe trip in Prince Albert National Park; Jim Gillis for his daughter Wendy's nomination for a Michener Award; Bill Christensen for forgetting to remind Dorothy that she was Greeter; Norm Woodcock for the Riders being undefeated in regular season play so far (sorry to tell you this Norm...); John Hanlin for replacing Dorothy as Greeter; Eileen Harvey for all fathers; Larry Neely for summer; Kim Horan because his adult daughter mowed the lawn for the first time ever; Boris Kishchuk because Saskatoon Co-op will donate 2,000 cobs of corn for RibFest; and Peggy Clark for her last meeting as President..
