This Week's Program Highlights

Prelude - Larry Neely

Chair - Stan Garchinski

Desk - Bob MacGillivray

Make Ups - Bryan Tastad

O Canada and Rotary Grace - Betty Ann Arscott plus Sunshine on My Shoulder

Greeter - John Hanlin welcomed:

- Guest speakers Linda Suveges and Jane Richardson.

4 Way Test Song - Stan Garchinski and Betty Ann Arscott

Program - Linda Suveges and Jane Richardson - Genealogy

Jim Blackburn introduced two distinguished pharmacy colleagues - Linda Suveges and Jane Richardson - who both have become genealogy detectives in retirement. They are involved with the Saskatoon Branch of the Saskatchewan Genealogy Society, which meets monthly at Bay 1, 1730 Quebec Ave. The next meeting will be on June 20 at 6:15 p.m. The Saskatchewan Genealogy Society website is <http://www.saskgenealogy.com/>. For information on Saskatoon branch events, visit them on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/SaskatoonGenealogy/>. What is required to be a good genealogist? Linda said you need to like mysteries and puzzles, be inquisitive, have attention to detail, research skills, persistence and patience, and a sense of humour. Your research may focus on collecting family stories or on your "pedigree" as shown in a genealogical family tree. Jane focused her comments on the DNA services that are now available. The various services offer somewhat different products so it is important to know what you are looking for. Some services may put you in touch with relatives while others may try to identify medical conditions. Walt Pawlovich expressed the club's thanks.

50:50 Draw - Kim Horan coordinated the 50:50 draw. Bryan Tastad won the pot of $17.

Cheer Captain Jack Scott - Jack conducted a test of our genealogical knowledge. Happy/sad dollars included Jim Blackburn and John Hanlin for Jane and Linda's presentation; Betty Ann Arscott because her son can return to High Level; Walt Pawlovich for rain in the forecast; Candace Odishaw for Lobsterfest; and Jim Blackburn because Walt Pawlovich will be in the pulpit at McClure on Sunday.
