CLUB BUSINESS

- Today was “Giving Tuesday”. The designated project for the club is the Ripple Effect. This project aides children in Guatemala in getting an education. All Happy/Sad dollars given today will go to this project.

- Jack updated on Enchanted Forest – still some nights to fill in however almost full for the season. It was noted that Jack is tending the gate for 21 straight nights. Someone have mercy and give him a break.

- Lorne Braithwaite indicated that all Salvation Army Kettle shifts are filled. One session has been complete with one to go(Dec. 9). Here are pictures of a couple of members in action.

- Peggy noted that our Christmas luncheon will be December 19th in which you can bring guests. Meal will be Turkey with desserts. Cost will be $35. Numbers need to be in by December 5th

- Monthly duties are needed for January to June. Please let Peggy know if you will step up and volunteer. Since there are only 2 meetings in the month, it is not a big commitment. There will be an executive meeting on November 28th at 10:30 prior to the meeting. An agenda will be forwarded prior to the date.

- If you wish to donate to the Food Bank or the Salvation Army through the club make the cheque out to the club and designate the recipient.

PROGRAM

Asit introduced our speaker. Hyunjung Shin obtained her Masters at the University of Hawaii and PhD stateside. She moved to the US from Korea in 2000 and began working at the U of S College of Education in 2011.

Hyunjung started her presentation by telling us of her experiences while obtaining her post graduate education. While she was very successful in her endeavours she was always the "outsider" and felt that way. Her first experiences with winter in Saskatoon were humorous but also touching in that it illustrated how she was a "stranger in a strange land". When there were issues in her workplace she began to wonder if she was somehow at fault.

This led her to attend a conference in Silicon Valley about Compassionate Leadership that had prominent tech leaders presenting their ideas. This initiated her passion for the ideas involved in compassionate leadership. Now she wants to champion these ideas in all sectors of corporate life and also within our club.

Hyunjung explained the differences between sympathy, empathy and compassion and explained the term "Compassionate Leadership".

Hyunjung has provided links to her materials for your review. Candace has provided these to you in an earlier email. If you follow the links you will get the gist of Hyunjung's presentation.

Lorne Braithwaite thanked Hyunjung her presentation on behalf of the club..

CHEER CAPTAIN

Stan Garchinski played the opening bars of a song and then asked members to identify the song. Bonus points were awarded for being able to sing the song. Happy and Sad dollars were donated by Joe, Dorothy, Lorne, Kim, Jack, Bill, Derek, Asit, Peggy, Betty Ann, Jim B., Arif, Karl, Candace, John, Walt, Bob, Stan and Norm.
