- Will Grant invited members to attend the Soup Cook-off to be held at the Saskatoon Indian & Métis Friendship Centre on October 25 from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. You will be able to sample all the soups for only $5, with funds raised going to the centre's supper program. Will has tickets. The Centre will celebrate its 50th anniversary beginning in November and is looking for donations.
- Lorne Braithwaite circulated the signup sheet for Salvation Army Kettles. We will be stationed at the Market Mall Safeway entrance on November 17, 23 and 30.
- The RAP AGM and 15th anniversary dinner will be held on November 22 at The Glen at Crossmount (south on Hwy 219). All Rotary clubs are asked to cancel their regular meetings for that week to encourage attendance. The AGM will begin at 5 p.m. with the dinner to follow at 6 p.m. There is no cost for the AGM. Candace has dinner tickets at a cost of $50.
- Jack Scott asked for volunteers to help work at the Enchanted Forest, which will run from the end of November to early January. The club receives $5,000 for operating the entrance gate.
- Candace Odishaw prepared a new duty roster that is delivered with this newsletter. Please check your spots and arrange a replacement if you can't attend that day.

Jack Scott and Bob MacGillivray came this close to holes-in-one at Moon Lake on a windy October 15. Both made their birdies.

Program - Club Assembly - RibFest

Boris Kishchuk introduced the report on RibFest 2019. He called on committee chairs to report on their areas of operation. Points noted included the following:

- Looks like the profit will be about $25,000.
- The new location worked well but we will adjust the location of the entrances.
- We once again hired Search and Rescue to do set up and take down and the Cadets to keep the site clean. Both did an excellent job.
- A total of 87 individuals volunteered, including 14 from other Rotary clubs and 13 with no Rotary association. There is a core group of individuals who work the entire weekend.
- Vendors had mostly positive comments about the event.
- We will take steps to ensure beer and coolers are cold when sales begin.
- Thanks to all who helped to make RibFest a success again this year!

50/50 Draw - Lorne Braithwaite coordinated the draw. Will Grant won the pot of $20.
