INDUCTION

President Candace and Membership Chair Betty Ann inducted Hannah Enti-Brown as a new member of our club. Hannah was sponsored by Nuru Nyoni.

PROGRAM

Hannah Enti-Brown then proceeded to tell club members about herself. Hannah was born and raised in Northern Ghana. She considers herself fortunate to have been born into a well to do family. She has two children aged 7 and 5 . Her father is her role model. He is a person who gives freely of his time and talents to help others, This is the role Hannah wishes to fulfill. She received her undergrad degree in Public Health in Ghana and her Masters in Scotland and England. She returned to Ghana to work. She wishes to become a change agent for the rural women in Ghana. In Ghana, the rural citizens are poor and disadvantaged. Hannah moved to Canada in October of 2022 so that her children would have better opportunities.

She was first invited to Rotary by Nuru Nyoni, a co-worker. She attended the District Conference and was impressed by the nature of the Service projects and their world wide locations. These presentations convinced Hannah that Rotary was for her and decided to join. Hannah recently returned for three weeks in Ghana. While there she explored joint projects with a local club. There may be a water project on the horizon for our club.

Nuru Nyoni

Nuru was born and raised in Tanzania. Tanzania has many natural beautiful geographical features including Mount Kilimanjaro. She is the youngest of 15 children and obtained her law degree to please her father. None of Nuru's siblings were interested in becoming a barrister like their father. It fell to Nuru to make Daddy happy. Upon completion of her degree Nuru became a barrister with the Tanzania Airport Authority and supported communities who were affected by the airports. She got her Masters in Public Administration in 2015.

She feels Rotary values align with her values so she joined. Presently she is completing exams so that she may work in Federal government settings.

Asit thanked Hannah and Nuru for their presentations. He was impressed with their youth and ambition.

Candace presents Paul Harris pins to Bob MacGillivray and Asit Sarkar. Both gentlemen are multiple donors.

CHEER CAPTAIN

Bob MacGillivray was filling in for Jack Scott. Bob was convinced the membership “Didn’t know Jack” so he tested us on our knowledge about Jack and Abby with a trivia test. A fun experience and now we know Jack.

Happy and sad dollars were donated by Kim, Asit, Walt, Joe, Karol, Jim G., Jim B., Betty Ann, Dave(guest) and John
