OPENING

Will Grant chaired the meeting and asked Principal Jennifer Heinrichs to open the meeting. Jennifer did a land acknowledgement.

A school choir accompanied by Jennifer blessed the meal and sang O Canada.

For the enjoyment of their guests the school choir also sang an enthusiastic version of “Lighthouse”.

Jim Gillis led the singing of the Four Way Test song.

Our guest today was Priscilla Mah.

PROGRAM

President Kim thanked Jennifer for inviting our club to the school to dine with the students and hear the presentations.

Will Grant thanked the Rotarians for coming and stressed how thankful he is for the relationship that has developed between the Nutana Rotary Club and St.Edward. The school is located in a lower family income area and has difficulty raising funds for extra curricular activities. Any funds given by our club partly funds the Land Based Learning programme where the students are exposed to Indigenous culture. This year Grade 7 & 8 students will go to Batoche and also participate in an overnight camp. Dorothy made a cash presentation on behalf of the club.

Photographs of the students were taken but cannot be published until approved by the school board administration.

The next meeting is at Sports on Tap, Tuesday April 14, 2026.
