OPENING

President Candace welcomed all members to the Parktown and introduced our guests Bob Aniagbaoso and Harshini Bayah from the Women's Business Network.

Candace reminded us that we are on Treaty 6 territory and land of the Metis.

Jim Gillis led the singing of our national anthem and the 4 Way Test song.

Candace then thanked all those who assisted at the meeting today.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Food Bank all club donation collection drive ended November 21st. Bob MacGillivray reported $2350 had been raised to date by our club with a $10,000+ total for the four clubs. It is anticipated there will be a matching donor,

- Bob MacGillivray noted we have the opportunity to volunteer at the Food Bank on Tuesday November 29. All shift positions have been filled but if you can be a backup for morning or afternoon please call Bob Mac.

-Lorne Braithwaite said that the positions for the Salvation Army kettles for Market Mall on November 26th are filled. Lorne has obtained an additional date of Dec 10 and is seeking volunteers/ The Riverside club will be approached to see if they are interested..

-Jack Scott reported the walk night for the Enchanted Forest attracted 5000 patrons and collected $19,000. Candace then led a volunteering "stare down" and the volunteer positions have been filled until December 13th. There are still opportunities available.

- The club Xmas Party will be on Dec 20th.

PROGRAM

Bob MacGillivray gave a brief review of the Paul Harris program for the Nutana club. Since the inception of the club $357,000 has been donated to the Foundation with the club currently holding 9917 recognition points. Questions about the recognition program should be directed to Bob Mac.

Candace then presented Paul Harris pins of various levels to Jim Gillis, Walt Pawlovich and Norm Woodcock. Karol Komar will be presented at a later date.

CHEER CAPTAIN

Joe Dierker was the cheer captain but unfortunately the editor had to leave and was unable to record the rate of extortion.

No meeting at the Parktown on November 29th next Parktown meeting is December 6th.
