PROGRAM

Betty Ann introduced our guest speaker Carmen Michelenko,

Carm and her family emigrated to Canada from Italy in 1964 when Carm was two years old.

As the eldest in a family of three, and with the best english proficiency, she became very bossy. (assertive). Carm started working at age 14 and paid her own way throughout. Obtained a degree in Commerce at the U of S. Throughout her working life she has worked in the public, private, non-profit and social enterprise sectors. Since 2015 she has worked at the Saskatoon Community Foundation.

When she worked with the Credit Union she was able to attend a Global Forum for the Cooperative Movement in Botswana. What she saw and learned there affected how she is living her life. She is happy to be a Rotarian.
