OPENING

President Candace called the meeting to order at 1230 PM and welcomed all members and guests

“WE LIVE ON TREATY 6 TERRITORY, HOMELAND OF THE METIS”.

Jim Gillis led the group on the singing of O Canada, Stan joined Jim for the singing of the 4 Way test song and Happy Birthday. Birthdays for October are Candace and Lorne while anniversary's for joining Rotary were celebrated by Joe Dierker and Jim Blackburn

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Candace reported we need to record the expected attendance prior to each meeting to provide the Parktown with numbers for the “soup and sandwich lunch” and the member volunteer will be put on the roster. We also need to provide our licence plate number to Candace for the parking.

- District Governor Elect Dan is looking for two representatives to aid him in seeking representatives from the District to agree to take on district positions both now and in the future.

- Mike stated that we are responsible for the Adventures in Technology (April 30 to May 5) and he is seeking 2 members from each Saskatoon Rotary club to work with him on the project (organizing drivers, finding billets, etc.). Please contact Mike if you are interested.

- Candace is seeking members who would be willing to donate towards the Food Bank this month to assist in her donation commitment. Forward donations to Bob McGillivray and he will send an aggregate cheque to the Food Bank. Cheques should be addressed to the Saskatoon Nutana Rotary Club with "Food Bank" in the notes line, Bob McGillivray is arranging for a Bowling social. Please read Bob's emails on the subject and sign up.

PROGRAM

Guest Speakers – Jim Gillis introduced Kelly Cardinal, Lori McAuley and Ashley Petite. All three work for the Greater Saskatoon Catholic School Board and have roles in the realization of the new St Frances School.

Kelly Cardinal is a Superintendent in GSCSB. Her presentation can be found on the club web page.

Lori McAuley is the new Principal of St. Frances School and was at the meeting to get to know the club.

Ashley Petite is Manager of Community Relations for GSCSB gave an update of the progress on the new St. Frances School.

Asit thanked the ladies for their presentations.

CLUB BUSINESS

Candace received member input with regard to the soup and sandwich type of meetings and meeting set up. For January and February club meetings will be every two weeks with a monthly fellowship theme meeting

CHEER CAPTAIN – Cheer Captain Stan Garchinski extracted fines from members by asking questions related to our Presidents life. Stan provoked much laughter and money with his humorous presentation. Happy and Sad $ were given by Jim Blackburn, Dorothy, Jack, Joe, Peggy, Karol and Lorne.

Next meeting is October 18th at SIMFC,
