Announcements & Program Highlights

President Candace welcomed all members and special guests including District Governor Fred to the Parktown at 12 noon. We sang “O Canada” and the Rotary 4 Way Test Song with the traditional accompaniment on Candace’s computer.

Candace called on Mike Gramiak and Jim Gillis for our presentation to the St. Frances Cree Bilingual School. She introduced Diane Boyko, Chair of the Greater Saskatoon Catholic School District, Kelly Cardinal who works closely with Diane, former Vice Principal of the St. Frances Cree Bilingual School and Ashley Petit, Manager of Community and Resource Development as well as Derek Kunz who is helping with the PR for the project. There was then an official photo presentation of a cheque for $ 20,000 representing the 2021/22 contribution to the $100,000 project.

Diane Boyko expressed her sincere appreciation to our Nutana Rotary Club for the support we are providing for the school and this project.

Candace then conducted new member inductions to Brynn Campbell and Carm Michalenko (Saskatoon Community Foundation) and issued a warm welcome on behalf of all our club members. We are looking forward to having Brynn and Carm at our meetings and club activities!!!

Candace announced we will continue having our meetings at the Parktown restaurant special dining room, ordering off the menu for now until our attendance improves. Unfortunately since this announcement, Parktown has let us know that we are unable to meet on Tuesday, Sept. 13th, so the location will be announced this weekend.

We continue to seek ideas for fundraising activities and we would appreciate any volunteers for our fundraising committee. We will once again be participating in the Enchanted Forest. We are seeking ideas for small and large projects.

Mike announced the September programs (please see above) and especially thanked the Woodcock's for their sponsorship of the Rotary Plaza brick for Doctors without Borders.

District Governor Fred Wright enjoyed his visit with the club and subsequent get together at the Queendom of Brenda Burbury's later that night. Jim Gilles, Jim and Shirley Blackburn and Candace attended together with about another 30 Rotarians from the other clubs. The chili was amazing.

Lorne Braithwaite and Jim Gillis will be responsible for the October programs.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!!
