First Nations Treaties

Peter Zakreski introduced Tom Molloy, whom he has known since their high school days in Saskatoon. Mr. Molloy is a well known and well respected lawyer and member of the Order of Canada. He has served as the Chancellor of the University of Saskatchewan and has written a book entitled "The World as we know it."

Mr. Molloy spoke of the "duty to consult" by the Crown and First Nations. In 1982 the Canadian Constitution was amended and the existing treaty rights of the First Nations were recognized and affirmed. This provided protection of the rights given to First Nations who had signed treaties with the Crown, and also protection to those First Nations who had not signed treaties. Mr. Molloy noted that the rights are not absolute. For example, in the case of hunting, fishing and trapping rights, on Crown land, the government must carry out the consultation in good faith in order to address the concerns of the First Nation.

Mr. Molloy's presentation was well received and generated many thoughtful questions and comments from the members in attendance.

Announcements

by Joy Adams Bauer

- Mike LeClaire recognized Lisa Broda of the Prairie Action Foundation and thanked her for the Foundation's very generous donation of $10,000 to our Restorative Action Program. The money will further the evaluation of RAP in order to measure the effectiveness of the program. This past summer a researcher at the University of Saskatchewan has been conducting an evaluation of our program. Her 70 page report will be presented to the RAP Board of Directors.
- For those members who have committed to buying grocery cards, please don't forget to pick up your cards from Joanne Fisher. She brings the cards to each meeting. Bring your cheque or credit card. This is such an easy fundraiser for our club. We buy bulk grocery cards from Sobey's and Safeway at an 8% discount and then sell them to members for full price. The discount for cards from the Co-op is 5%. Everyone needs groceries. Please buy some cards and support our club's worthwhile projects. This is the proverbial "no brainer".
