This Week's Program

by Bernard Sonntag

Guest Speaker: John Allen, Marketing and Recruitment Coordinator, Big Brothers Big Sisters for Saskatoon and Area Inc. John is a relatively new member of the Nutana Rotary Club.

Information on programs and activities can be found at www.bbbsaskatoon.org. The program has recently been re-branded.

- their main goal/mission is healthy development of individuals
- BBBS has numerous programs to address varying needs
  - o Matching program wherein mentors are matched with individuals for one-on-one help in life skills

- Couples program
- A new area is assisting kids in care homes to learn life skills - many are victims of alcohol abuse, bullying, etc.
- In-school mentor program where kids often come from troubled homes/families
- Group program - 490 kids enrolled now. They participate in various group activities (volunteer helpers are needed). Experience with the program indicates that mentored kids do better than average in measureable behaviour. Male mentors are an urgent need now - 200 boys are on a waiting list now.

- Contact John Allen at BBBS if you are interested in getting involved.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Bev Johnson presiding

Gord Menuz - no name tag

Happy & Sad Dollars

Mark Gryba was happy about the BJM win in City High School Basketball

Wayne McGillivray was happy to wear his Red Serge and singing at the Legion curling event.

Jim Beveridge was the winner of the free lunch.

Announcements
