PROGRAM/SPEAKER

Posted by David Allen on Jul 16, 2012

Patrick Lalach P.Eng - AECOM, Manager, Transportation Saskatchewan District

Patrick Lalach, is an Associate Vice President with AECOM, located in their Saskatoon office. Patrick graduated as a Civil Engineer with Distinction from the University of Saskatchewan in 1995. Currently, Patrick is the Design Manager and the Engineer of Record for the AECOM Design Team, who reports to the Graham Flatiron Joint Venture on the Circle Drive South project.

CIRCLE DRIVE SOUTH DESIGN BUILD PROJECT

The Circle Drive South project, at an approximate budget of $300MM, is the largest single project in the history of the City of Saskatoon and the Saskatchewan's first Design-Build transportation contract. This project will complete the "ring road" originally proposed around Saskatoon in the 1913 Yorath Plan, and is expected to handle approximately 27,500 vehicles per day once the City's population reaches 250,000. This will shorten commuting distances for residents and reduce traffic on the Idylwyld Bridge by 35% during afternoon rush hour.
