Sergeant Ken found funds for the Foundation for not attending Lobsterfest, for being a new member (unless sing a duet of the welcome song), for not having Rotary pin on, for being a Boston Bruin fan, for buying a new bunch of fine coupons,

Happy and Sads: for watching grandkids and freezing, for daughter success at tournament, for having a treatment that eased pain in knee, for receiving Life achievement Award in pharmacy, for learning to drive with a car full of kids, for Canadianizing new arrivals from Brazil at the cabin, for upcoming road trip to Toronto and London, for winning 50/50 at golf tournament, for an honest drawer of the 50/50.

Announcements

Lobster Fest 2019. A whopping success.

Lobsterfest was sold out for the first time.

Total net proceeds were over $30,000. Donations to NASHI, Hospice, Joy Centre and Saskatoon Search and Rescue were $9,000.

Submit invoices to Ian ASAP.

Club Business

Induction of New Members

Murray Acton and Brian Fehr were inducted as new members of the club. Don Stefiuk proposed them as new members. Presidents Tom and Ron officiated in the induction ceremony. After the ceremony, Murray and Brian were welcomed by the members.

Program

Adam Fairbairn attended Adventures In Citizenship in Ottawa. The first night was a small house party with 50 people. He met a lot of people.

They visited the War Museum on the first day, which was awesome as he is a history buff. The second day they attended Parliament, where the Speaker spoke to them and they got to sit in new Parliament. It was a great experience.
