Program

Bee provided members with an overview of her year in Saskatoon.

“Not one year in a life, but life in a year” is the slogan for Rotary Exchange and aptly describes it.

One year ago, Bee took the great leap to explore the world. At 7 years of age she knew that she would be an exchange student. She left

She came on August 26/ 19. She was met by 3 green dressed people, who rushed back to see the end of the Rider game.

Shortly after arriving she started school. It was a bit stressful because she did not know anyone. It was not a long time until she knew several people.

She did not like the cold weather of winter. She went to Churchill to see the polar bears. It was a magical experience.

Christmas as very difficult as she missed her family. However, she was not alone. She had friends and many hugs.

In February, she moved to a new host family. He host mom baked many cakes, which resulted in a shrinkage of her slacks. Her host mom told her that she was the closest to a daughter that she has ever had.

At Easter, she moved to a new home. She had a new host mom, who didn't bake so the slacks expanded.

In April, she went on the western trip. She saw the Rocky mountains, Lake Louise and Banff. It was an amazing experience.

In a few weeks her year will be ending. She is very sad to be leaving. She has met so many great people.

What matters is not the clothes and stuff you year, it is the people you meet, the connections you make,

She thanked the club for an most wonderful and memorable experience.
