Nineteen people attended the social event held at Wacky Wings. Club members were there with family and friends to enjoy fellowship, fun, and some of the 60 different flavours of chicken wings that were available. More than a few people remarked on the number of years it had been since they had enjoyed a meal of wings.

It was a great opportunity for Rotarians to “let down their hair” and get to know each other in a relaxed atmosphere. Some club members remarked that it was nice to enjoy a Rotary event in the company of their spouse. The evening was surely a success judging by the laughter and interaction coming from the tables! What a nice way to spend a winter’s evening in January.
