Craig Sandberg was the Sergeant-at-Arms for the evening. Mary Ann Breton was a guest. She had attended the club meeting last week and is interested in joining Rotary. President Sante had other commitments this night so Past President Therese Lim ran the meeting. Sharon Badanai gave the toast to the Queen.

The speaker for the evening had to cancel so it meant for a short meeting. Craig was the Fine Master. Cindy Levanto-Kawahara and Solade Nicole both had good news. Craig then gave a 7-question general knowledge quiz. Those members who were unable to provide all of the correct answers paid a fine.

PP Therese read the correspondence. There was a progress report, from Plan International, on the club's sponsored child from Senegal, Awa Diouf. There was also mail regarding the House Lottery.

David Knutson, House Lottery Chair, provided an update.

Ticket sales are up by 11 percent at the outlets compared to this time last year. Ticket sales at the house are up by 12.5 percent. David thanked everyone who had sold tickets so far. Secretary Joan Krisko discussed issues that she is encountering regarding ticket sales.

Dawn Sebesta announced that the date for the Sleeping Giant brewery tour, slated for April 24, has been changed to May 1 at 5:00 p.m. Family members are invited to join club members at this event.

Terry Cameron did Lighter Side and had everyone laughing at the nun and the taxi driver.

Gordie Garriock announced that she had won an award from the Thunder Bay chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. One hundred dollars was donated to Fort William Rotary on her behalf.

Craig ran the 50/50 draw. Nineteen tickets were sold bringing the pot up to $184.50. Guest Mary Ann pulled the lucky ticket that was held by Craig. Cindy laid out the cards and Craig picked the ten of hearts. He had the right suit but not the lucky red Queen.

After the meeting, Terry Cameron gave out Lottery tickets to individual club members who wanted to sell them.
