Meeting of September 5th

President-Elect Stephen Margarit called the meeting to order. President-Elect Stephen is filling in for President Sante Sottile. In the absence of a piano, the singing of O Canada was deferred to next week. Bev Knutson invited Rotarians to raise a glass and toast to the Queen. Robert Moore was the Sergeant-At-Arms for this meeting and advised that we had no guests in attendance.

Our speaker was Director Dawn Sebesta.

Dawn spoke about her role with the LAKEHEAD FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND THE ARTS. It is a volunteer-based organization that organizes an annual event for young people wishing to demonstrate their progress in their respective fields. Dawn talked about the success of this year's event and expressed her thanks to all of the support from businesses and individual patrons and subscribers, and especially the support received from the Fort William Rotary Club.

President-Elect Stephen called Dave McColl to the podium and presented him with a plaque, honouring him with being selected as "Rotarian of the Year" for 2017-2018. (Congratulations Dave – well deserved! Editor)

Dave Murray handled fines and fined those who had not volunteered to help at Wilderness Discovery.

Dave McColl delivered the Lighter Side.

Robert Moore conducted the 50/50 draw.

Karl Wahl had the winning ticket but drawing the two of diamonds did not win him the money!

President-Elect Stephen adjourned the meeting.
