PRESENTATION:

Our special guests today were Kevin Haynen and Domenic Barbiero, from the John Howard Society. Kevin is a prospective new member of our Club and will be inducted later this month.

Kevin Haynen is the Acting Executive Director of the John Howard Society of Thunder Bay and District. He was hired by the John Howard Society in 2009 as a Community Support Worker for the Homelessness Partnership Initiative. Following the conclusion of that program, Kevin worked as the Community Service Order program coordinator and was promoted to Program Manager in 2011. Prior to joining the John Howard Society of Thunder Bay and District, Kevin attended Lakehead University and graduated in 2007. Kevin was born and raised in the city of Thunder Bay and is a member of AZA First Nation.

Domenic Barbiero is the Coordinator of the John Howard Society's On-Track Restorative Justice & Conflict Resolution Program at Westgate High School. He received his Child and Youth Worker Diploma from Confederation College here in Thunder Bay. For the past nineteen years, Domenic has worked as a Student Support Professional at Westgate. Throughout his time at Westgate, he has enjoyed many opportunities to mentor students, both inside and outside the classroom. He loves coaching soccer and assisting the Westgate football teams.

Kevin welcomed the opportunity to talk with us today about a new program of the local John Howard Society – the ON-TRACK PEER MEDIATION PROGRAM. The John Howard Society facilitates the On-Track Peer Mediation Program at Geraldton Composite High School (Geraldton) and Westgate High School (Thunder Bay). This program aims to resolve in-school conflicts, while supporting students experiencing mental health issues. It encourages youth to take accountability for their behaviour through peer mediation.

The On-Track Program offers support for mental health and addiction concerns, and teaches proactive problem solving/conflict resolution skills. Youth attending the high schools are trained as Peer Mediators and assist in developing a resolution to whatever problem has arisen. The coordinator of this program helps students develop their skills as mediators, and forges partnerships in the community to ensure youth have access to support services. Dominic Barbiero is well-suited for his role as Co-ordinator of this innovative new program given his association with Westgate High School. He is impressed with how the students have taken to this program in their school and he and Kevin hope this will grow to serve all high school students in Thunder Bay.

Dominic praises the students involved in the On-Track Program

FELLOWSHIP FINES:

Richard worked the cup today starting out in traditional style with tribute from President-Elect Barbara for assorted good reasons. He then invited Past Presidents in the room today to share their most memorable moment in the year(s) they served. Sandy served the Club as President twice [2001-02 and 2010-11] and that is memorable in itself. Roy served in 2008/09 and half of 2007/08 when President Brian Ross had to step down due to illness. Brian passed away in the spring of 2008. Paul served in 2011/12 and his year is a blur as it went by very quickly. Gail Brescia served in 2013/14 and recalls many positive moments and good fellowship. Bill served our Club in 2009/10 and also served the Fort William Club as President when he was a member of that Club. Clint served in 2004/05, Rotary International's Centennial Year. This was also the year that Fort William Rotary hosted the last District Conference to be held in our community and he helped organize the Conference on Governor Ajoy Chatterjee's Conference Committee. The Centennial vests that were created for the DC are still sported by area Rotarians from time to time. If you're interested in our history, the complete line-up of Club Presidents follows this "Fine" section of the Chronicle. Richard then challenged us to recall the cover of this month's Rotarian magazine. Chris and Graham were the only ones to recall the image. Bill, an ardent Chicago Blackhawks supporter, has a seasonal "replacement" and is happy to see the Pittsburgh Penguins with two wins in the Stanley Cup Finals. Chris was happy to report that work on his Beaux Daddy's expansion in the Intercity Shopping Centre is going well and he hopes to see the official opening on June 19th. Claudio shared his sad/happy dollar with news that his wife has gone to Winnipeg for surgery on her eye. Doctors predicted she would have been blind years ago but she continues to enjoy sight and hopes that this will continue months from now when the bandages are removed. On a happier note, Claudio's 6-year old son joined a youth bowling league and was acclaimed rookie bowler of the year as well as bowler of the year in his league...an amazing tribute. Gail Kromm's happy dollar was for the great visit with grandkids down south and the opportunity to visit with their mothers. Gail also enjoyed seeing the 50th anniversary of a quilting show that is a major event now. Richard shared his happy dollar (?) with news that the government is estimating the demolition of the Lakehead Psychiatric buildings to be $11 million. He has a crowbar and will offer $3 million. Paul's happy dollar was for the opportunity to attend this year's Easter Seals Recognition event and to hear again how Easter Seals impacts young lives in our area. He also shared news that he and Anne have been host to a young lady from Hungary who is heading to Fort Frances to work as a tree planter. She arrived here 3 days before her flight was due to leave for the Fort and she looked around the neighbourhood to find a yard where she could set up her tent kit and camp out for a time. She found the Carr's residence and after learning about her plight, they took her in. They have some history with sponsoring and hosting young people through Rotary's Youth Exchange Program. I think the word "serendipity" covers this story nicely. Gail Kromm closed this round out with great news – our Rotary District has approved a grant of $8,000 U.S. to match the $4,000 U.S. donated by each of the Port Arthur and Lakehead Clubs. This $16,000 U.S. [$20,000] is for the Salvation Army's Soup Van retrofit project and the Fort William Club is also donating $10,000 CDN from its Canada Day House Lottery...so the total contribution for this project from the 3 local Clubs is approximately $30,000. She added more great news as the Salvation Army's HQ has approved the development of a new building for the local Salvation Army. Gail will tell us more about those plans as they come together. Thank you Richard for a rewarding and most entertaining sweep.

Snowy White (Terrence Charles White born March 3, 1948 in Barnstaple, Devon England) is a British blues and rock guitarist known primarily for having played with the Irish rock group THIN LIZZY from 1979 to 1981, and as a back-up guitarist for PINK FLOYD in 1977. He is one of a handful of classic blues-oriented British electric guitar players. Growing up on the Isle of Wight in the English Channel, he received a guitar from his parents at the age of 10. With this, his first guitar, he taught himself to play it. At the age of 11 he began to listen to blues music from American artists such as Albert King, B.B. King, Otis Rush and Buddy Guy, and decided that was the kind of music he wanted to incorporate into his playing.

In 1965 at the age of 17, he moved to Stockholm Sweden where he lived for a little more than a year playing in a trio called "THE TRAIN". In 1970 he moved to London England where he gradually gained a reputation as a respected session guitarist, and eventually as a member of the group HEAVY HEART. During this time, he met the now legendary English blues guitarists PETER GREEN—they went on to become life long friends. He toured the Eastern United States in 1974 as a back up player with HEAVY HEART. But it was in 1977 when he was chosen by ROGER WATERS of PINK FLOYD to join them on THE ANIMALS Tour, that Snowy started to make an impression on Americans.

In 1979, THIN LIZZY guitarist SCOTT GORHAM heard him play in New York City with PINK FLOYD and invited him to play with THIN LIZZY. Snowy became a full member of the band while still playing with PINK FLOYD. He played with THIN LIZZY until 1982 when he left. Back in England he put together a blues band called THE BLUES AGENCY. Between 1986 and 1989 the band toured the U.K, Europe and recorded two albums, Snowy appeared again with ROGER WATERS on THE WALL live in Berlin Germany in 1990. He formed his WHITE FLAMES band in 1994 and recorded five albums with them over the next ten years.

In 2008 he formed a new band called THE SNOWY WHITE BLUES PROJECT and released one album "TWICE AS ADDICTIVE". He toured again with Roger Waters in 2010 to Europe, Australia and North America. He is currently working on a new album.
