A Rotaract Project in France

The 10 members of the Rotaract Club of Cote d’Opale sold red clown noses and teddy bears at sporting events in October, raising about $1,200 for an initiative that brings joy to sick children, The beneficiary, Les Clowns de l’Espoir (Clowns of Hope) sends volunteer clowns into hospitals to help children forget about their illness”, says Pierre Emmanuel Bataille, incoming club president. “Each visit has costs in terms of logistics, toys for the kids, and organization, so we decided to help them by selling red noses and teddy bears.” Some Rotaractors even donned clown costumes during the sales.
