

WELCOME ALL!!

Greetings to all!

President Doug led us in toasts to the Queen, Canada and to Rotary International.

Regrets were received from Colin, Bill, Vic, Gary and Ken.

Happy Birthday to Gary!!

Speaking of Gary, he wants to remind all that dues are due!!

Happy Bucks,,,,,$20 from Don as he feels that he got a good deal with his ski pass..$20 from Lin as he feels guilty that he has sent so many regrets lately and so now he is paying for it!.and $5 from Tom as he wishes all a Happy New Year!

Western Rotaract Club

Be sure to sign up for the “Day of Giving” which is Saturday Jan. 27. The Rotaractors supply the brawn but they need our wheels!...dayofgiving@gmail.com.

Arun introduced Rotaractors

Melissa and Roslyn. Both are in their 4th year at Western in the science program and hoping to get into medical school next year. One of the Rotaractor projects is running the Juvenile Diabetes Camp which is held at the Pearce Williams Christian Centre near St. Thomas. The weekend camp is open to diabetic children and their families. Sessions and activities are geared to help educate the participants on learning to live with this condition. Generally there are about 80 participants
