

JUNE 12, 2019

It was nice to welcome President Jennifer and Tony Hill back from the Rotary International Convention in Germany. They were joined in Germany by Sparky and Laurie Leonard and Brett and Lynn Smith.

Today's meeting began with a video of two exchange students who described their experiences at the recent Convention. Both were so excited about their experiences and highlighted why this is one of Rotary's most important projects.

Next on the agenda was the feature of today's meeting - the introduction of 4 new members to our club.

Katrina Scharuda from the Bradley Centre was sponsored by Diane McGuigan. Bruce Ross, newly retired from Mainstreet Credit Union, was sponsored by Barry Fraser.

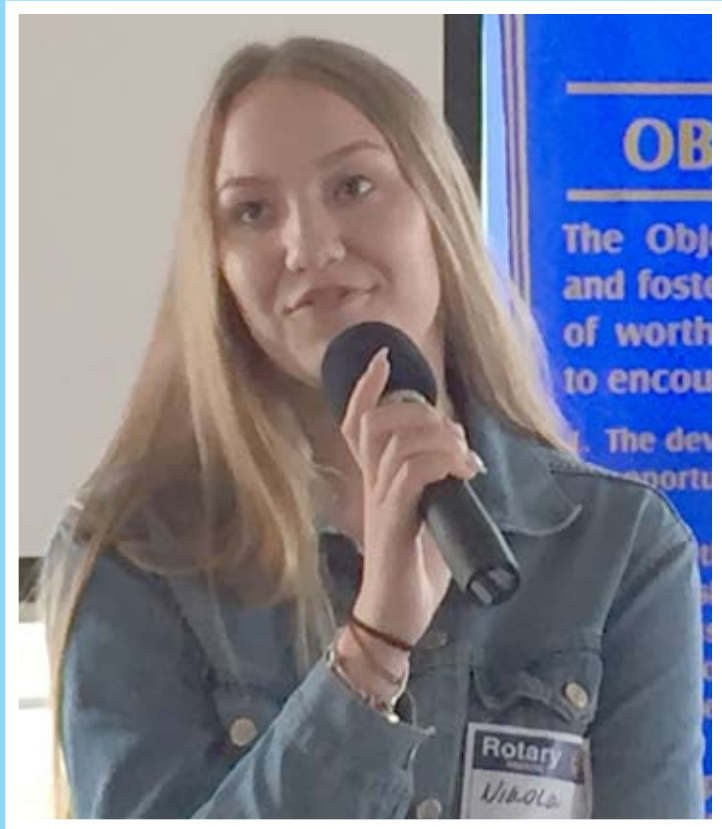

Two new corporate members were also introduced. Scotiabank, represented by Branch Manager Sherry Coppo, was sponsored by Jeff Comiskey and Children's Treatment Centre was represented by Foundation CEO Mike Genge. This corporate membership was sponsored by Donna Litwin-Makey.

We extend a hardy welcome to all the new members and we are so pleased to be welcoming so many new members this week.

On a sadder note, we said goodbye to our exchange student Nikola Blazowska from Poland. Nikola is a charming student with tons of personality. We were so pleased to have her with our club this year and wish her continued success in the future,
