

OCTOBER 31, 2018

This week was a club assembly under the direction of President Jennifer Hill.

Directors talked about the progress of their committees, updating the membership on their successes and their challenges.

Rotary is a club of volunteers and we appreciate the hard work of all volunteers.

Brad Langford talked about Rotary International, Paul Mayrand talked about Youth Exchange and Les Herman discussed TV Bingo.

Keith Koke updated us on polio and the Pizza project and Peter Tanner told us about the Rachael project in Guatemala.

Ed Robbins described the efforts made by his committee to increase membership and Tania Sharpe talked about our Regular Bingo games and also mentioned the challenges facing the Banquet committee.

Besides the committee chairs, there are many countless Rotarians delivering bingo cards to stores, working the floor at Bingo games, organizing speakers, arranging for meals, doing office work and countless other chores.

President Jennifer pulls it all together.

PIZZA LUNCH AT THE PARKFIELD

Here are some pictures from lunch on Wednesday, October 24 Pizza at Parkfield in our appreciation for bundling over 250,000 loosely received TV Bingo Cards prior to distribution to our vendors!

Attended by Les, Charles and Rick, pictured below with the crew that does the work. About 55 served, I think.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT SOCIAL

Rotarians attended a social evening on Wednesday, October 24, 5:30 pm. at The Kent, located on William St. at Park St.

Thanks to Colin, Ed, Jeff and Tom M. for a great evening. I thought it went very well and, for sure, we have one new committed member and I would think several who are considering it.

We had 34 Rotarians and 32 guests. Good speakers. Lots of good conversation and a really excellent night. Very good venue. Hopefully some new members will come from it.

Thanks to Sparky and Keith for their heartfelt speeches (and Marty for the use of her egg timer).

We brought the club into focus and our projects also, both here and abroad.

Thanks to all who came out. If you didn't, you missed a really good event.
