France, 2011
French with English subtitles
124 minutes – RATED 14A
Principal Cast: François Cluzet, Omar Sy,
Audrey Fleurot, Anne Le Ny, Alba Gaia
Kraghede Bellug

An improbable bond grows between a wealthy quadriplegic and a young offender of Senegalese descent, who is hired as his live-in caregiver. It is about a friendship that transcends social and economic divides, “effortlessly balancing gravity with buoyant effervescent humour.” One of the highest grossing non English language films of all time, nominated for nine Cesars, won Best Actor Prize in France for Omar Sy.

Stories We Tell

Sarah Polley
Canada, 2012
English
108 minutes – RATED PG
With: Sarah Polley, Michael Polley, Harry Gulkin

A lively and richly textured “genre twisting” movie which shows differing perceptions between people and seamlessly blends past and present, the real and imagined. It is directed by Sarah Polley, award winning Canadian actress and film maker and is about herself and her own family. Special Presentation at the 2012 Toronto International Film Festival, (TIFF), much appreciated by the audience and reviewers.

A Royal Affair

Nikolaj Arcel
Denmark/Sweden/Czech Republic/
Germany, 2012
Danish with English subtitles, English
134 minutes – RATING PG
Principal Cast: Mads Mikkelsen, Alicia Vikander,
Mikkel Boe Følsgaard

A sweepingly romantic and “subtly nuanced” portrait of a difficult period in Denmark’s history, this is the story of an English princess, married at 15 to the King of Denmark, and the complications that ensue involving the court physician and the political climate of the time. This is beautifully acted and visually stunning. Gala Presentation at the 2012 Toronto International Film Festival, (TIFF) and Denmark’s submission for Best Foreign Film at the Oscars.

The Sapphires

Wayne Blair
Australia, 2012
English
103 minutes – RATED PG
Principal Cast: Chris O'Dowd, Deborah Mailman,
Miranda Tapsell, Jessica Mauboy, Shari Sebbens

A wildly entertaining musical comedy begins in Australia in 1968. It is about an all aboriginal female soul quartet that had difficulty establishing their group in their homeland and travelled to Vietnam to entertain American troops during the war there. It is based on a true story and the singing is splendid, including several genres of the period. A Special Presentation at the 2012 Toronto International Film Festival, (TIFF). Very well received by the audience. Based on the smash 2004 Australian play by Tony Briggs. Has won 2 awards thus far.
