Speaker – Marguerite O'Neal

Michael Adams introduced Marguerite O'Neal, our speaker. Intro was short and sweet about her education and history.

Marguerite attended the Rothmans School of Management and Harvard University.

She spoke on the topic that 'Legacy Matters'.

Her father took her many times to the Queen Victoria fountain in Jamaica, and was inspired that it was built by her grandfather. This is part of her legacy.

Her mother worked as a nurse for 32 years in Jamaica, part of her legacy.

These stories of service brought her to realize that Rotary is her path in Service

Her professional role and mission is to help CEO's future proof their businesses and create a legacy. She uses the moniker of Creative Disruption, a theory based on the Neuroscience of Leadership. It incorporates disruptive innovation theory.

Her Community Service includes:

- UOIT
- Grandview Childrens Centre
- Girl Guides
- Brooklyn United Church

Marguerite invited us to join her Creative Disruption Show and Podcast.

Chad Campbell thanked our speaker.

Noon Hour Draw

Bill Stirling took the cards with him to golf in Myrtle Beach... so we did the draw without them. Rhonda Vanderlinde was successful in the draw. We are unsure how that will be handled when Bill returns.
