Report on the Meeting of June 11th, 2018 held in Oshawa Botanical Gardens

Head Table

There was no head table as we enjoyed a picnic in the park near the peony displays.

President - Ron Dick

Introducer – George McCormack

President's Announcements

Ron welcomed everyone and handed over to George McCormack who gave us some announcements re the picnic and the arrangements for the day.

Introductions/Guests

George introduced the following Oshawa City Council staff involved in running the gardens and making the arrangements for our picnic:

Dru Chillingworth, Parks Manager

Lindsay Allward, Supervisor Grounds Management

Debra McCarten, Facility \booking

Laura Lantomasi, Supervisor Events and Community Engagement

Noelle Rees, Head Gardener at the Oshawa Botanical Gardens.

He thanked them for organizing today's event and he also thanked Gordon Dowsley for making the necessary arrangements for the delicious food presented in front of us.

Tess Pierce introduced Joan Mansfield and Laura Murphy from Dancyn Productions, Oshawa.

Various club members introduced their wives and friends who boosted the attendance to 47.

Mic Time None

Happy Bucks None

Speaker None

Whilst there was no guest speaker as such, Joan Mansfield informed the group about two forthcoming productions at The Regent Theatre – “We Will Rock You” and an Elvis Presley Tribute Show. Laura Murphy then sang for us “I Can't Help Falling In Love With You” from the Presley show and “Over The Rainbow” from The Wizard of Oz.

After this club members and their guests strolled amongst the peony beds and George McCormack took those who wanted to on a guided tour of the gardens.
