

Report on the Meeting of Monday 29th October 2018

Head table

President - Kevin Harding

Sergeant at Arms and Organiser of Meeting – Tess Pierce

President's Announcements

Kevin read letter of thanks from Simcoe Hall thanking us for our generous donations which enabled children to go to school all kitted out ready for the new school year.

He informed the club that next week's meeting would be at The Officers' Mess in The Armouries, Simcoe Street, and would be our annual Remembrance Lunch.

He thanked all those who had made the World Polio Day event at Durham College the previous Wednesday such a huge success.

He said there would be a Rotary Leadership Institute seminar on November 17 at Scarborough Golf Club.

He announced the following Committees would be holding their meetings after the club meeting – World Services, Charitable Fund and a special one off Night of a Thousand Dinners.

Introductions/Guests

Rick Kerr, Oshawa City Counsellor, guest of Kim Tan

Eli Brooks and Sue Solway, members of Bowmanville Rotary Club and guests of Ron Dick

Steve Cattell, former member of The Rotary Club of Oshawa and guest of Bob Armstrong

Mic Time

Peter Hernandez and Mike Adams aka “Bonnie and Clyde” (I’m not sure which one was which!) advertised The Night of a Thousand Dinners to be held on November 21 at 6.30pm in aid of The Canadian Landmines Foundation which promotes and supports financially the campaign to eradicate landmines around the world. The price is $75 a head which includes a great dinner in The Mess, a donation to the foundation and the chance to listen to a very interesting guest speaker, David Collonette, the Canadian Minister of Defense at the time of the signing of the Ottawa Treaty banning landmines.

Trish Best, Chair of the Fellowship Committee, advertised the Annual Christmas Party at The Jube Patio and Bar on November 29th 2018. The cost will be $40 per head and she advised members to sign up quickly as there are only 66 places available.

Guests Eli Brooks and Sue Solway advertised concerts to be held on Sunday December 16th at 3.00pm and 7.00pm in aid of “Feed the Need in Durham”.

Happy Bucks

There were too many Happy Bucks for this scribe to note down but a record $106 was collected from members and guests. We were all very happy!

Speaker – Tess Pierce

There was no guest speaker this week but we all had Halloween Hijinks under the supervision of Tess Pierce

Next Meeting

Monday November 5th at 12 noon at The Officers' Mess. Remembrance Lunch with guest speaker Bryan Davies, local historian.

All regular meetings held at:

12:10 at the Oshawa Golf Club.
