Arthur Lovell introduced Randy Henry

Randy Henry introduced Jill Richardson, former elementary school teacher

Randy Henry introduced Mary-Anne, born on mother's day in 1958 in Regina Saskatchewan, recently retired, and worked as a nurse for 37 years.

Durham Region Hospice - residential hospice for Durham, she started in this because of her experience at the hospital in emergency rooms. Their vision for hospice is to close the circle, a re-representation of your home, private rooms. Always a medical person on site.

A new building is being built between Bowmanville and Newcastle on Cobble Dick Road, people will feel safe, they will be with loved ones. They will need 33 hospice beds, there is a meeting tonight.

To better serve individuals in our community who are facing palliative diagnosis, in February 2018 Durham Region Hospice and VON Durham Community Corporation launched Comfort, Care, Compassion, a $15 million capital campaign to support the construction of two new residential hospices in Durham Region and bring this much needed resource to our community
