

My dad was a Paul Harris fellow, was a Rotarian in Montreal, Toronto, Chatham and SARNIA.
I was a member in Guelph for a number of years.
Always great people who tried to live up the the four way test, and usually succeeded.
I rejoined after quite a number of years because of fond memories and a belief that Rotary can change the outlook of society.
Jim Millington”