Our Policies

4. Allegation Reporting

All allegations of abuse or harassment will be taken seriously and must be handled in accordance with the District 5580 Abuse and Harassment Allegation Reporting Guidelines

Our Policies

5. The Rule of Three =

No One-On-One Contact

The “Rule of Three” requires that there must always be at least three people, of which at least one must be an Adult, present when interacting with Youth.

Our Policies

Exceptions to “Rule of 3”

- Host family members may meet with Rotary Youth Exchange Students one-on-one.
- A Certified Volunteer may transport Youth Exchange Students to and from Rotary club meetings and other Rotary Youth Activities.
- Any Youth who makes an allegation under the YPP may raise the allegation to one Adult.

Our Policies

Exceptions to “Rule of 3”

- Meeting with a single youth in public locations (e.g. a coffee shop, restaurant or public library) is acceptable because of the presence of other members of the public, even if they are not directly acquainted with the youth or volunteer. Private meeting rooms are not acceptable. Transporting the youth to and from these locations may not be acceptable, depending on the situation.

Our Policies

6. Overnight Accommodations

If Rotary Youth Activities involve overnight stays, no Volunteer or Certified Volunteer, other than a family member or a Host Family, may occupy single accommodations with a Youth.

In the End, it's about Trust

- We must be able to trust that all Rotarians, and any other volunteers, will safeguard the welfare of youth and prevent the physical, sexual or emotional abuse of youth in our programs.
- We must instill trust in others by avoiding conduct that could be misunderstood and by clearly preventing situations where inappropriate actions might occur.
