Moorhead RYLA contingent shares experiences with summer program

President Jon Benson welcomed members and many guests, thanking those whose service to the dictionary project and the Strive committee generated a large crop of make-ups this week.

Bill Woods, who chairs the annual presentation of dictionaries, reported that only a few opportunities remain to pitch in with the popular project. Sign-up sheets were circulated for recruits for final deliveries to Clay County third graders.

Violet Deilke, who chairs the Travel Giveaway Raffle fund raiser, thanked members who have already sold their tickets and turned in the proceeds. "Be sure you turn in anything you cannot sell right away," she urged. Members who sell four and eight tickets will be eligible for next week's incentive prize drawings.

Jon announced there will be no regular board of directors meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 14. Instead, directors and members will be spending Monday evening at dinner with District Governor Tim Kaminski, who presents our program next week.

He added, "Remember to bring in your shoes to donate to Charism!" The gently used footwear will be donated to the charity.

Sergeant at Arms collects happy bucks, introduces year's RYLA youth delegation

Mike Hulett doubled up as sergeant at arms and Rotarian of the Day. After collecting happy dollars for travels, the gubernatorial debate, birthdays and anniversaries, he introduced the four students who attended RYLA camp this summer: Dylan Olson, Syler Rheault and Jade Schanz of Moorhead High, and Kaylee Schultz of Park Christian High School.

Dylan said he returned from RYLA "totally changed," still friends with young people he met from across Minnesota. Like Jade, he said he went with an open mind; she told the club, "It was the best week of my life."

Kaylee and Syler both focused on the FISH philosophy, which focuses on engaging others and meeting their needs while having fun doing it. Said Syler, "I've applied it to my work at Godfather's Pizza at the Moorhead Center Mall, and I've never had a bad day at work since learning about it."

Kaylee told the club she almost didn't sign up, but her bravery in taking on the challenge has made a difference. What she learned about being a leader has led her to become captain of her volleyball team and has tried out for a musical group. She performed the song she sang in the RYLA talent show, accompanying herself on the ukulele.

The students agreed that more of their peers should attend RYLA. "The program would be good for our whole school if it could be applied there," Syler noted.

Lucky ticket-holder wins raffle pot

John Andreasen's support of the club's weekly raffle snagged him half the cash in the pot! The other half is donated to the treasury.
