This week, Gary Nolte will present a program on "salvaging New Orleans" after Hurricane Katrina.

President Steve Astrup welcomed Moorhead Rotarians March 25 with the news that the day's speakers were not available. The meeting turned into a relaxed conversation on current teen slang, including Alex Aldrich's explanation of the derivation and meaning of "riz."

Sarge Paul recalls the late Roland Dille

Sergeant at Arms Paul Dovre reminded the group of his late colleague, Roland Dille, president of MSUM and an active Rotarians. "Roland would share 'on this date in history,'" he recalled. In his honor, Paul shared some historical moments himself.

He gathered happy dollars, beginning with $5 of his own for memories of Dille. Kay Parries reported that the weekend's North Center President-Elects Training Session had been a success. Cindy Nolte noted that Mary Tangen, the organist who played for her wedding, has died. Tom Riley shared insight on the proper use of "skibbity ribbet" and "skibbity rizz." Jean Hannig's dollar saluted the showing of "Speak," featuring Steve Schaefer's son, later that week.

In the absence of a speaker, Steve showed an insightful video by popular motivational speaker Simon Sinek offering tips for success. Among them:

- * "It's not about how much you get done in a day; it's how much you get done in a career."
- * "Ask for help and accept it when it's offered."
