Socializing Again on a Sunny Afternoon

Finally! Moorhead Rotarians, their spouses and guests gathered at Harold's on Main on Tuesday, June 29, to enjoy each other's company and kick off the new Rotary year.

The evening was an opportunity to welcome Mike Gjevre of Thrivent Financial, our newest member, who was sponsored by Tammy Finney.

President Jerry Rogers — who has completed the weirdest term ever, a year fraught with pandemic restrictions and Zoom meetings — passed the gavel to incoming president Gina Monson.

100 T-Shirts for Our 100th Anniversary

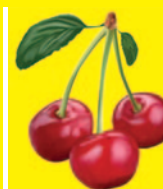

River Keepers is collecting T-shirts to be made into eco-friendly bags. As part of our commitment to the environment, let's gather 100 old, unwanted T-shirts for their project! Bring those old shirts piled up in the bottom of your drawers to our meeting this week or next week to make the world — and your closet — a little greener!

Coming Up Tuesday

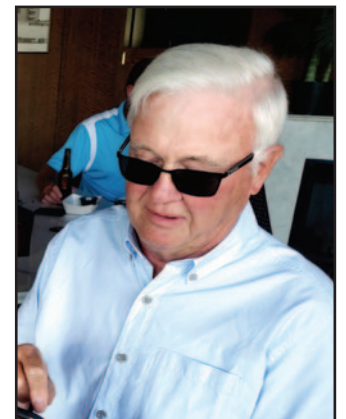

Shelly Gompf of Fargo's Downtown Business Association will fill us in about the upcoming Downtown Street Fair July 15-17. Teresa Joppa is sergeant at arms, and Emily Gess is Rotarian of the day.

100 Hours of Service for Our 100th Anniversary

The YWCA has asked us to help once again with their Cherries for Charity event July 12-18 at the Azool Hornbachers. It's easy and fun — all it requires is washing the samples and handing them out to eager shoppers. To volunteer, please go to the the link in this week's email.
