Coming Up Tuesday

Joe and Kate Fluge of K9 Crew present a program on urban K9 service and training at Tuesday's meeting. Scott Greelis is sergeant at arms, and Kevin Heazlett and Ernie Simmons are greeters of the day.

Brett Drevlow and Teresa Joppa offer lessons in new website and Clubrunner

President John Andreasen welcomed guests and members to Moorhead Rotary for the last time at the June 11 meeting. He was pressed into service this year in lieu of a new officer; originally intended for several months, he wound up serving the entire year. Incoming president Steve Schaefer now takes over the gavel, while John departs in mid-month to lead a tour to Norway.

Among those in attendance were Moorhead High student Emily Pranger, who is working with Jean Hannig and Rotary exchange student Nicolas Padula Pinho on setting up a Roteract club at the school, and Fargo Rotarian John Boulger. Nicolas leaves soon for a trip to the East Coast before returning home to Brazil. Members passed the basket for a cash gift to send him on his way.

Sarge at Arms Sam gathers happy dollars

After sharing the story of a Canadian Rotarian who played the bagpipes on the beach of Normandy, Sergeant at Arms Sam Wai invited members to share happy dollars and happy news. Dollar bills were deposited in the kitty for many reasons: visits of friends and relatives, Jean Hannig's trip to Germany for the Rotary International convention, John's service as president, news from former foreign exchange students, kids participating in summer theater, and the opportunity to contribute (through happy dollars) to the budget and year-end accounts.

Members give instructions in using high-tech communications to build Rotary

Brett Drevlow introduced the club's new website, under development in recent months by him and the public relations committee. The site — found at moorheadrotary.org — includes information on club events and projects, along with a chance to sign up to receive the Paddlewheel and an invitation to attend a meeting.

He challenged members to share the site with others who may have in interest in the club. He also highlighted the club's Facebook page, easily found by searching for "Moorhead Rotary." He urged the group to like the page and share information on it about service and volunteerism, club projects and events. "Be sure to include a picture and tag friends," he suggested. "That increases likes and shares. Facebook is a great way to get other people interested in our club."

Secretary Teresa Joppa discussed Clubrunner, the site where members can sign in to read the "Sign in with your name as it's recorded on your Rotary membership, and use the email address at which you receive the Paddlewheel and other messages," she recommended. After completing the brief registration form, you'll receive an activation email from Rotary; click on that link to finish setting up your account.

The entire handout she distributed is attached to this Paddlewheel and can also be found on the home page on Clubrunner. The site can be accessed both on a desktop computer or laptop and on your smartphone using the Clubrunner app, which can be downloaded from Google Play and the iPhone app site.
