Forum photo chief shares 'the rest of the story' from 36-year career with camera

Moorhead Rotarians opened their meeting Sept. 12 with a moment of silence for the lives lost on Sept. 11, 2001.

Travel Give-Away chair Dale Hetland once again reminded members that they'll be getting their tickets for the annual fund-raising raffle by the end of the month. Each member is responsible for selling (or buying) five chances for prizes in each of eight monthly drawings, including trips for two to destinations of the winners' choice, $200 cash prizes and $100 dinner certificates to Rustica.

Guest Ken Retzer of the noon Fargo Rotary Club invited Moorhead members to attend one of their meetings. Attendance at the lunchtime gathering is free for visiting Rotarians, as it is when others join our sessions.

Bill Woods touted Sausage Fest, First Presbyterian Church's annual fall festival. It takes place from 2:30 to 8 p.m. on Sept. 30.

President Steve Astrup noted that the club is still looking for a member for the 2024 district conference planning committee.

Sarge Tim reports on book about polio fight

Sergeant at Arms Tim Hiller shared highlights of the global fight to wipe out polio, drawing from the book Polio: An American Story by David Oshinsky. The campaign, he said, marked the start of American philanthropy with the famous March of Dimes, then Rotary’s involvement starting in the 1980s.

Behind those newsworthy images

Rotarian of the Day Nancy Hanson introduced Colburn Hvidsten III, universally known as “C3,” who shared photos drawn from his 40-plus years as a news photographer, first at the Grand Forks Herald and, starting in 1968, at The Forum. The former president of the National Press Photographers Association retired in 2004.
