Candidate Forum Tentative Details - October 20

The Rotary Club of Wenatchee is holding a candidate forum for the Washington Senate's 12th District between candidates Brad Hawkins and Jon Wyss, both Republicans. The forum will be held at the normal noon meeting time for Wenatchee Rotary on Thursday, October 20, but the location will be the Wenatchee Valley Museum & Cultural Center.

Lunch will be available for purchase starting at 11:30 am. The meeting is open to all Rotarians and the public, but seating is limited, so people may want to arrive early.

Current arrangements are for Sandy Cohen, Executive Director of the Museum to be the moderator and timer. The forum will begin at 12:15 pm and last for a minimum of 30 minutes. Both candidates will be making statements and allowed to respond to the other candidate's statements. More details will be clarified in the week before the forum.

LocalTel plans to video-record the forum and rebroadcast it on its local NCW news channel 12.

Wenatchee Rotary is planning to post videos of the forum on the Wenatchee website at www.wenatcheerotary.org and on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/WenatcheeRotary/?fref=ts>.

As we make final arrangements, more information will be posted on the Wenatchee Rotary website and Facebook pages. Other area clubs have been notified as well as the two the candidates' campaign HQs.
