GENERAL AUCTION RULES

Each guest is given a bid number upon arrival. This number is your only means of identification. Please keep it throughout the evening. A signature or verbal bid during the Auction constitutes a legal contract to buy. All sales are final and there will be no exchange or refunds unless indicated. In all cases of dispute, the decision of the Auction Committee is final.

Unless otherwise noted, all goods and services must be claimed and used within one year of the auction date. Restaurant certificates do not include liquor, tax or gratuities unless otherwise indicated.

Reservations for dinners, trips and vacation accommodations must be mutually arranged with the donor unless otherwise noted. Travel packages and airline tickets may have restrictions which cannot be altered or refunded.

HEADS & TAILS - Sponsored by Wenatchee Valley College Foundataion

For $10 you can purchase a necklace for a chance to be tonight's "Heads & Tails" Winner!

Everyone participating in this fun opportunity will have an equal chance to vie for a credit on their auction purchases in the amount of 1/2 the "pot" collected. If you are the last person standing, after the auctioneer leads us through the flips of the coin, you will receive credit on your auction purchases

SILENT AUCTION

Please write your bid number on the sheet associated with each entry. If an entry is not legible, the next eligible entry will be used. Please pay attention to minimum bids on each sheet.

LIVE AUCTION

Your bid number will be recognized by the auctioneer and/or spotters. Please hold it so it can be seen easily. Successful bidders for the Live Auction must sign a receipt. At that time, each bidder should verify that the bid number, amount of purchase and item descriptions are correct.

CHECKOUT PAYMENT/CASHIER

All credit cards entered during registration will be charged at the end of the night. You can add or change your payment at anytime during the event. For your convenience, we accept most major credit cards, check or cash. Payment in full the night of the auction is mandatory.

The bidding "winner" should allow 30 minutes from the time his/her item is recorded before reporting to the cashier to pay for the item. All items must be removed the night of the auction, unless special arrangements are made.

WARRANTIES & REPRESENTATIONS

The Wenatchee Rotary Club has attempted to describe and catalog all items correctly, but all items are offered "as is", "where is". The Wenatchee Rotary Club neither warrants nor represents and in no event shall be responsible for, the correctness of descriptions, genuineness, authorship, provenance, or condition of the items. No statement made in this program or at the night of the auction or elsewhere shall be deemed such a warranty, representation, or assumption of liability. The values listed are estimates only and are not warranted for tax purposes or fair market value. Items have not been appraised unless so noted. Each person issued a bid number (bidder) assumes all risks and hazards related to the auction and items obtained at the auction. Each bidder agrees to hold harmless from any liability arising therefrom, The Wenatchee Rotary Club, the Wenatchee Rotary Foundation or its elected and appointed officials, members, and employees, the auctioneer, the event organizers, sponsors, and or volunteers connected with the auction.

Wenatchee Rotary reserves the right to add or withdraw, without notice, items to or from the auction.

Special Thanks to...

LIVE AUCTION ITEMS

1. Enjoy the Legislative Happenings with Senator Brad Hawkins in Olympia

This is your chance to enjoy the Legislative happenings and buzz with Senator Brad Hawkins in Olympia. A perfect chance for up to 10 people to have a guided behind the scenes look at the House and Senate chambers, walk through the rotunda to the Governor's office and capture the experience with an official photo. Staff from Senator Hawkin's office will assist with other tours such as the Capital, Supreme Court and Governor's mansion. The educational experience will amaze you on how the Washington state government works. Date and time to be determined.

Donated by: Senator Brad Hawkins

2. Wine, Appetizers, Art and Music at the MAC.

Join us at the new Music and Arts Center on the campus of Wenatchee Valley College for an evening of wine, art, appetizers, and good company. The wine will be provided by Dark Horse Winery and the appetizers by Two Chefs Catering. The art gallery, a hidden treasure within the MAC, features student artists and will be open for your viewing pleasure. As the acoustics in the beautiful Grove Concert Hall are second to none, we are hopeful that a live musical experience will be possible. Last year's Wine and Appetizer Event held at the Wells House was enjoyed by 30 Rotarians and their guests. Event is Available to 36 guests.

Donated by: Susan Albert and Joe St. Jean

3. Relax at Lake Chelan

Enjoy Million Dollar views and the tranquility and beauty of Lake Chelan South Shore. Three nights at a cozy two bedroom Lake Chelan cabin with a million dollar view. Relax on the deck or enjoy the heart of all the natural beauty and fun activities this area is known for. Bring your boat and park your trailer just 150 feet away. NOTE: A long set of stairs leads to the front entrance, so this accommodation might not be a good choice for guests with mobility issues and no pets allowed.

Donated by: Chris Baker

LIVE AUCTION ITEMS

4. Building Communities Centerpieces

This is your chance to take home a piece of Rotary history. In the Rotary Blue and Yellow colors, the centerpieces can be used as a toolbox with tools, convert to a flowerbox in the spring, beverage caddy or book holder. Priced at $30 each.

5. Viva Espana

Imagine a pan, as big as a snow saucer, full of bubbling, savory saffron rice, liberally adorned with crunchy chicken drumettes, tender shrimp, andouille sausage pieces, artichoke hearts and other veggies, cooking over a charcoal fire while you sip on a cold refreshing beverage. Come and bring up to 9 of your friends to enjoy this Valencian Paella party prepared and served by Rory and Laurel Turner at their home in Wenatchee. Paella parties are best during the warm weather months so let's find a mutually agreeable date between mid-May and mid-August.

Donated by: Rory and Laurel Turner

6. Chelan County Sheriff's Ride Along

This is your chance to experience the life of one of our finest officers in Chelan county. See first hand how a police officer conducts business during routine patrols and responding to calls within Chelan County. Must pass a basic criminal background test. Donated by: Wenatchee Interact Club and Jon Magnus

14. VW Westfalia Camper Weekend

Hop on the bandwagon and experience the joy and wonder of the “van life” experience and enjoy a “tiny home” on wheels. Everyone either has a fond memory or experience in a VW Bus or they wish they did. You will get a weekend in a 1978 Volkswagen Westfalia Camper Van. This home on wheels is fully equipped with a 2000 cc 4 cylinder engine with fuel injection and hydraulic lifters. Don't let that fool you though because you will be able to go 70 on the flat and down hills, but will be lucky to pull 40 up any hills. This camper sleeps 4 adults and one child comfortable. It features an ice box, propane stove, sink, and plenty of storage. The 4 speed manual transmission can take you most anywhere in the state of Washington you'd like to go. Bring the duct tape if you want, but we have towing insurance that will give you peace of mind cruising around in this classic.

This rustic tiny home has offered over 20 years of fun and quality family for Kory and his family and he is offering a weekend getaway for you and your significant other or family, limited only by your imagination.

Donated by Kory Kalahar

15. Wildflower Bird Watching Tour and Hike

Bring family and friends and join Wenatchee Naturalist, Susan Ballinger on April 30th for a delightful, educational and fun outing where you will visit three of Wenatchee Valley's unique and scenic settings and revel in the spring surge of wildflowers and numerous local and migrating birds. The tour, which includes two stops in the Horse Lake habitat, and an up-close visit to Peshastin Pinnacles, concludes with a delicious lunch hosted by the Warm Springs Inn on the banks of the Wenatchee River. A “car pool” driving tour with a few short walks, the outing will start at 9:00 am on Sunday April 30th finish at 2:00 pm – for 14 people. (all ages welcome) Bring your binoculars and camera!

Donated by: Susan Ballinger and Warm Springs Inn
