

Lloyd Lindston Berry

Lloyd Lindston Berry, 79 hiked into Heaven on Thursday, August 31, 2017. He died peacefully on his favorite mountain hike, surrounded by many of the people he loved so dearly. Lloyd was born October 9, 1937, in Seattle WA, to the late Lloyd G. Berry and Agnes Lindston Berry. He grew up in Cashmere, WA and graduated from Cashmere High School in 1956. Lloyd graduated from the University of Washington, in 1961, with a degree in Civil Engineering and was awarded "Outstanding Engineer of the Year". He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta "Fiji" Fraternity where he made life-long friends. Immediately after college, Lloyd went to work for the Federal Aviation Agency, installing navigational aids in the 11 Western States.

On May 12, 1962, Lloyd married his life-long sweetheart, Sue Remley. They were married for 55 years. They both considered each other their best friend. In 1964, Lloyd and Sue moved back to the Wenatchee, WA area where their 3 children: Kristen, Leanne and John were born.

Lloyd was the resident engineer responsible for the relocation of the town of Pateros, WA, during the Wells Dam Project from 1964-1967. In the summer of 1967, Lloyd began work with Chelan County, where he became Chelan County Engineer and Director of Public Works until his retirement in 1994. This same position was held by his grandfather, Fred Berry, in the early 1900's. During his career, Lloyd was proud of the many road and bridge accomplishments he oversaw as County Engineer, including replacing all but one bridge in Chelan County. One of his favorite projects was the coordination, with the city, to develop Centennial Park in downtown Wenatchee. Lloyd served the Wenatchee Valley in many ways. He was an active Rotarian (37 years) with perfect attendance, going to Rotary meetings in 15 countries on five continents. He made several trips to Central America to help with the construction of youth care facilities for under-privileged children. He is a Paul Harris and Paul Scea Fellow.

Lloyd was a true Historian of North Central Washington. A past President of the North Central Washington Museum and a board member for more than 40 years. He was considered an expert on the history surrounding the trails and hikes of North Central Washington. Lloyd was a member of the Columbia River Environmental Study Team (CREST), Community Foundation of North Central Washington, National Association of County Engineers (NACE), and the American Society of Civil Engineers. One of Lloyd's favorite pastimes was collecting and restoring antique cars. Many people would recognize Lloyd driving his pink Cadillac in the Apple Blossom Parade, a tradition started by his father and carried on for many years. Lloyd loved the outdoors! He hiked into every high alpine lake in Chelan County and climbed Mount Rainier, Mount Fuji, Mount Kilimanjaro, Machu Picchu, Mount Whitney, Glacier Peak, Ayers Rock, Mount Cashmere and more. The Great Outdoors was his happy place, but nothing brought him more happiness than being surrounded by his family. He was his family's biggest fan. His family is so blessed by his teachings of hard work, good decisions, positive attitude and unconditional love.

Lloyd is survived by his loving wife, Sue, daughters: Kristen Holmberg(Erik) of Wenatchee, WA, and Leanne Gallagher (Tom) of Mercer Island, WA; son, John Berry (Brooke) of Wenatchee, WA; adoring grandchildren: Rawley, Lindy, Drew, and Ben Holmberg. Lauren, Anna and Joey Gallagher, Ella, Ava Jo, Jake and Kate Berry; his beloved step-mother, Elaine Berry; brother Richard Berry (Sandy) of Harstine Island, WA; and Brooke's mother Tammy Beschen of Wenatchee, WA.

In lieu of flowers, friends who wish to make memorial donations in Lloyd's name may donate to the Community Foundation of North Central Washington, 9 S. Wenatchee Ave, Wenatchee WA 98801, or the Wenatchee Rotary Foundation, in order to build a new picnic shelter at Rotary Park, P.O. Box 1723, Wenatchee WA 98807.

A Service of Thanksgiving

Cashmere Riverside Center

God is my help in every need.
 God does my every hunger feed.
 God walks beside me, guides my way
 Through every moment of the day.
 I now am wise, I now am true,
 Patient, kind, and loving too.
 All things I am, can do, and be
 Through Christ, the Truth, that is in me.
 God is my health, I can't be sick.
 God is my strength, unfailing quick.
 God is my all, I know no fear
 Since God, and Love, and Truth are here.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepard, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures: He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for you are with me: your rod and your staff - they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies: you anoint my head with oil: my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

How Great Thou Art, Verses 1 & 2..... Everyone

Oh Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder
 Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
 I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
 Thy Power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus
Then sings my soul, My Savior God, to Thee
How great thou art, How great thou art
Then sings my soul, My Savior God, to Thee
How great Thou art, How great thou art

When thro' the woods and forest glades I wander
 And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees
 When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
 And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze

Prayer..... Rev Jim Deal

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come.
 Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, Forever. Amen.
