How Rainbow Began

- Founded in 1922 by Christian minister Mark Sexson
- Originally for daughters of Masons and their friends
- Focus was based on the teachings of faith, hope, and charity

The Bottom Line Isn't About Money

- As a result of helping others, Rainbow Girls realize that life is richer because they have grown into better, more caring human beings.
- Learning this valuable life lesson builds strong character – a solid foundation for a successful future.

Rainbow for Girls

Rainbow welcomes any girl, between the ages of 11 and 20, to become a member.

- It doesn't matter where you live, where you're from, what language you speak, or what religion you practice.
- We embrace cultural diversity. It's what defines us as individuals and what makes us stronger as an organization!

Three Solid Reasons to Support Rainbow Girls

1. Many high schools now require students to participate in volunteer efforts.
2. Most colleges and universities look to enroll students who have embraced a philanthropic spirit.
3. Research shows that students who volunteer are more well-rounded, are more engaged in their community, and earn better grades in school.
