April Speaker Schedule

9th – Chris Smith - Innovative Tools for the Nuclear Industry

16th – Kristin Walker, Community Service Club
23rd – Fourth Tuesday Fellowship Hour

Preliminaries

Vice president Julie Funfar filled in for Bob Tibbatts, opening a high-energy meeting by calling on Cynthia Vaughn to lead us in the singing of Shirley Bassey's 1973 pop icon, "Sing, Sing a Song" (perhaps some of us have faulty memories or were too busy listening to the Weavers to remember). Chris Smith stepped in to provide the invocation.

Guests and Visiting Rotarians

Terri LaBlanc brought her grandson, Wyatt LeBlanc and Rick Wilson was a visitor again. Chris Meiers' guest was Mark McDonald, and Travis Clifton introduced his daughter, Catie Clifton. Jeff Daniels visited from Columbia Center Rotary. As is our new custom, members greeted other members sitting at nearby tables.

Announcements

Terri announced that our off-site meeting on month on Tuesday, April 23, will be a Ken Williams new facility in the Horn Rapids Industrial Park. More to come.

Chris Meiers announced that the WSU Veterans Club will be holding a Parking Lot Party on April 13, from 4 to 8 pm to try out the new GIPA Veteran-Brewed Beer at Bombing Range Brewing Company at 2000 Logston Blvd. at the Horn Rapids Business Park.

Roy Keck announced that the project committee will meet with the City of Richland parks and public works departments at 1 today to discuss future projects. There will also be a highway cleanup party, probably in May.

Joan Wright announced that 29 students have applied for Rotary scholarships this year. Julie also pitched the Upcoming District Conference in Spokane.

50/50

Gary Scofield noted that there was a grand total of $11 in the pot today. For once, Chris Smith didn't win with Chris Meiers trying to catch up with him by drawing BOTH lucky numbers.

Judge Dick Richter

Chris donated his recent winnings. Travis bragged about his daughter's school band which just won a prestigious jazz concert contest.

Cynthia Vaughn bragged about her recent trip to Colorado and her son's 30th birthday. Linda Bauer touted the upcoming High Baroque concert of the Mid-Columbia Mastersingers Treble Choir on April 12-14 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kennewick.

Pam Larson talked about her recent experiences with the Hanford Advisory Board. Jan Griffin talked about her recent trip to California spent reading and visiting book stores.

Julie Funfar is just back from Maui and payed to talk about her trip. Ken William must have been bored. He recounted his brothers' favorite help-wanted ad. Jan countered with hers: "Wanted! Someone to work to replace someone who won't."

Dick then began a new game in which he (the dealer) matched playing cards with someone who draws from a deck at each table with the fines collected at that table on the line. (HMMMMMM.)

Program

The remaining time was taken up with a short business meeting by Prez Elect Julie Funfar. The nominating committee's slate of officers for next year was announced.

Officers for 2019-2020

A signup sheet was passed around to allow members to review their committee assignments and to change them if necessary. Committee chairs provided an overview of what their committees were doing.

Julie also announced one of her pet programs for the coming year; a $500 Passion Project fund that will allow members to help fund their personal passions with help from Rotary.
